FINAL COUNCIL MEETING

Short Session at which North Line on Main Street was Established and Appropriations Voted to Sinking Funds

There was a very short session of the court of common council on Friday evening, lasting but five minutes after it started, but there was a short delay in getting a quorum. Present were Mayor Lippitt, Aldermen Robinson and Stepton, and Councilmen Buckledge, Sullivan, Hopkins and Heath.

The reading of the journal was omitted, and the first business item on the agenda was the petition of the Chelsea Savings bank for the establishment of a line on the north side of Main street, and the report of the finance committee upon such a line. There was no opposition to the establishment of the line as reported by the committee and it was adopted as follows:

Resolved, That the northerly line of Main street, between the points hereafter mentioned be established as follows: Beginning at a point on the dividing line between the Chelsea Savings bank and land of William F. Chapman, which line is five feet westward from the westerly face of said Chapman street, running easterly 75 feet 30 inches to a line, which, if produced easterly, would cut a point in range with the westerly face of said Chapman house, and 5 feet 10 inches southerly from the southerly corner of the brickwork thereof, and the petition of Oscar W. Carpenter of Prospect street for the removal of a dead tree in front of his premises was referred to the tree warden with power.

Mayor Lippitt stated that the treasurer desired the council to take action upon the petition of the Chelsea Savings bank for the establishment of a line on the north side of Main street, and the report of the finance committee upon such a line. There was no opposition to the establishment of the line as reported by the committee and it was adopted as follows:

Resolved, That the northerly line of Main street, between the points hereafter mentioned be established as follows: Beginning at a point on the dividing line between the Chelsea Savings bank and land of William F. Chapman, which line is five feet westward from the westerly face of said Chapman street, running easterly 75 feet 30 inches to a line, which, if produced easterly, would cut a point in range with the westerly face of said Chapman house, and 5 feet 10 inches southerly from the southerly corner of the brickwork thereof, and

This completed the business of the session and adjournment sine die followed at 8:15 o'clock.

Mayor Lippitt referred to the members attending the Memorial day exercises and expressed the hope that all would be present and participate, and Aldermen Stepton made the same statement.

250th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION of the Founding of Norwich, July 5th and 6th

ANNUAL CRADLE ROLL
AT PARK CHURCH.
Held at Osgood Memorial, Resulting in Enjoyable Time.

The annual cradle roll of Park Congregational church was held on Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 in the parlors of the Osgood Memorial.

There were about thirty-six little people present who enjoyed the usual hour of games and toys. A short missionary exercise began with prayer by Rev. Dr. Howe. The recitations were: Welcome to the Babies, by Catherine Hemphill; Gently Now the Cradle Swings, by Constance Learned; Betty Huntington and Francis Gallaudet; Ten Little Fingers, by Catherine Blythe; and Catherine Hemphill; Sing, Sing, Sing, by Betty Warner; I Can Be a Light Bearer, by Margaret Sawyer; Mission Shells, by Sally Williams; Lullaby, by Carol Alton and Roy Getchell; Now Our Gifts We Offer, by Roy Getchell, and a missionary story by a little Chinese schoolgirl—called Long Hua's Golden Lilies—narrated by Dorothy Alton.

Mrs. Grover Ely played for the march at the Osgood Memorial. The children registered on the cradle roll and each of those present received a pretty cradle roll certificate, from Miss Louise C. Howe and others of the usual mite box. The amount from those opened was $3.94.

Miss Sarah L. Huntington and Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson, who were in charge of the cradle roll and were the hostesses for the children. The rooms were prettily decorated with spring blossoms by Miss Louise C. Howe and others of the usual mite box. The amount from those opened was $3.94.

Mrs. Ellen Murphy qualified as executrix of the will of Michael J. Murphy, and as appraisers John Murphy and Joseph P. Connor were named.
